At age 15, Barry Shackelford of Danville is the youngest to ever receive the black belt from the Kim School of Karate in Danville.

Shackelford was recently presented the coveted first degree black belt by Dr. Steve Ausband, instructor at the Kim School Tae Kwon Do.

A student at Tunstall High School where he maintains a straight A scholastic average, Shackelford has been involved in karate for the past four and one-half years.

During the past three years he has entered area fighting and form competition and has won 13 trophies in 12 tournaments.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Shackelford of Rt.1 Danville, Barry will join Dr. Ausband as an instructor at the Kim School.
